MEERUT: An 18-year-old girl who had set off from Greater Noida on foot along with her family for her native place in Hardoi district died in a quarantine centre in Bulandshahr on May 11. According to officials, the family of four – couple and their two daughters – was intercepted at Bulandshahr border and was taken to a quarantine centre in district on Monday morning. The victim, identified as Aarti Singh, had been suffering from tuberculosis for the past several years, officials said.

According to the sources, Phool Singh, Aarti's father, used to work as a driver and had lost his job due to the lockdown, following which, the family decided to walk to their village in Hardoi, more than 400km away near the state capital.
